

GRACE HOSPITAL
FOUNDATION

Kevin McGarry

Kevin's career began as a faculty member in Faculty of Commerce (now the Asper School) and morphed into long career in commercial real estate starting as co-found and CEO of Pratt McGarry Inc. (now Colliers International) and ending with his recent retirement as Principal and Managing Broker at Cushman Wakefield Stevenson. In between, he was the found and CEO of Western Life Sciences, a Manitoba venture capital fund.

Kevin has been active in the Winnipeg community for many years and including with the Misericordia Foundation, Resource Assistance for Youth (RaY), St. John Brebeuf Parish Council, Palliative Manitoba and Centre Venture. Kevin and his spouse Elizabeth support numerous philanthropic endeavors around Manitoba through the McGarry Foundation.