Steve Chipman

Steve is a graduate of the University of Manitoba holding degrees in Honors History, Education and Law. In 2002, he became the President and CEO of the Birchwood Automotive Group, which is the largest dealership group operating in Winnipeg with additional stores in Rural Manitoba, Saskatchewan and North Dakota.

Steve's passion for the automotive industry has led him to serve on several industry boards including the Manitoba Motor Dealers Association, the Automotive Business School of Canada and as chair of the Canadian Automobile Dealer Association. He is the past winner of the CADA Laureate Award for innovation and has served on several national manufacturer dealer councils.

Steve has also been involved in many charitable organizations including being a past chair of the 2013 United Way Campaign Cabinet. He also coaches high school cross country running and track and field.
